OUR STORY

We opened in 1994 with the vision of brewing world-class beer for Texas and creating an institution that Houston would be proud of. At the time, Houston had no craft breweries and the craft beer movement was just beginning with fewer than 200 nationwide.

In 2010, after outgrowing our original space, we purchased and repurposed the century-old building next door that now houses our brewing and packaging operations. Years of advocacy helped us modernize Texas beer laws, allowing us to open our Beer Garden & Restaurant in 2018 – where you're enjoying yourself today.

We remain proudly independent and just as dedicated today to building community through our passion for beer as we were on day one.

Thank you for being part of the journey – we're glad you're here!
